Finding the perfect city lunch spot that is quick, tasty and within budget can be a challenge but it seems many have found it at Ludo. The small Queen St cafe is packed in the middle of the day by those picking up a panini, baguette or spanakopita, all for less than $10. If you have the time to sit down there's a daily pasta and soup special and plenty of sweet treats to have with Illy coffee. For early risers there's a decent breakfast menu. Z.S.
